

Summary CV of Alastair McIntosh (updated Dec 2016)

26 Luss Road
Drumoyne
Glasgow G51 3YD
Scotland

Tel: +44 (0)141 445 8750
mail@AlastairMcIntosh.com
www.AlastairMcIntosh.com

Literary Agents:
Watson, Little, Ltd, London

For a full academic CV and publications see:
www.alastairmcintosh.com/general/my_cv.htm

Background and Education

Born 1955, grew up on the Isle of Lewis. Village school in Leurbost. Nicolson Institute, Stornoway, highers in Physics, Chemistry, Maths, Geography, English and co-curated natural history museum.

Graduated 1977, University of Aberdeen, with a Degree of Bachelor of Science (BSc) in Geography, submajoring (as Designated Degree) in Psychology & Moral Philosophy. SRC Science Faculty Convenor.

Graduated 1981, University of Edinburgh, Degree of Master of Business Administration (MBA), specialising in Accountancy, Finance & Investment and Management Science.

Graduated 2008, from the Academy of Irish Cultural Heritages, University of Ulster, with degree of Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) by Published Works: Some Contributions of Liberation Theology to Community Empowerment in Scottish Land Reform 1991-2003.

Principal Posts

- 1969-1977 - Seasonal estate work as a ghillie (rowing on salmon lochs) and pony boy (deer stalking); shift work at Alginates seaweed factory; builder's labourer; boatman to Loch Erisort scallop divers
- 1977-1980 - Deputy-Head, St Peter's Extension School, VSO, Gulf Province, Papua New Guinea and setting up micro-hydro electric schemes
- 1981-1984 - Scottish Organiser, Leprosy: British Leprosy Relief Association, Edinburgh
- 1984-1986 - Financial Advisor, South Pacific Appropriate Technology Foundation, Moresby, PNG
- 1986-1990 - Business Advisor to the Iona Community; and, simultaneously, Co-Director, Foundation for the Peoples of the South Pacific. (From 2008, serving on the Iona Community Board)
- 1990-1996 - Teaching Director (initiating and directing the MSc degree and PhD supervision) Centre for Human Ecology, Faculty of Science and Engineering, University of Edinburgh
- 1996-2001 - Joseph Rowntree funded Fellow of the Centre for Human Ecology (Open University)
- 2001-2001 - Executive Director, Centre for Human Ecology (CHE) - interim troubleshooting post
- 2006-2012 - Visiting Professor of Human Ecology, Strathclyde University.
- 2013-now - Honorary Fellow, School of Divinity (New College), University of Edinburgh.
- 2013-now - Senior Honorary Research Fellow (Professor), College of Social Sciences, Uni of Glasgow.
- 2013-2016 10% time in AHRC funded post as Research Fellow with School of Divinity, University of Edinburgh, on climate change and ancestral time project.
- 1996-now - Freelance as a campaigning academic, broadcaster, speaker, writer, poet, consultant - on climate change, poverty, community empowerment, peace studies & spirituality in our times.

Books, Papers and Articles – details at www.AlastairMcIntosh.com/publications.htm

Over 200 books, scholarly articles and ephemerae in journals including Accounting, Business & Financial History, Environmental Values, Edinburgh Review, Scottish Affairs, The Ecologist, Resurgence, Interculture (French/English), Oceania (Sydney Uni. Dept. of Anthropology), Cencrastus, Ecos: Brit. Assoc. Nature Conservationists, J. Oral History, Psychoenergetic Systems, J. for the Study of Religion, Nature & Culture, Fishing News, Fishing Monthly, J. of Law & Religion, Ecotheology, Theology in Scotland, Bres (Holland), Encyclopaedia of Nature and Religion, J. of the Society for Psychical Research, United Nations Proceedings, IUCN, INSEAD, The Herald, Scotsman, Guardian, Le Monde Diplomatique.

- Soil and Soul: People versus Corporate Power, Aurum, London, 2001 (Trans. 2004, Editions Yves Michel: Chronique d'une alliance: peuples autochtones et société civile face à la mondialisation).
- Love and Revolution (collected poetry), Luath Press, Edinburgh, 2006.
- Hell and High Water: Climate Change, Hope and the Human Condition, Birlinn, Edinburgh, 2008
- Rekindling Community: Connecting People, Environment and Spirituality, Green Books, 2008.
- Radical Human Ecology: Intercultural and Indigenous Approaches (co-editor), Ashgate, 2012.
- Island Spirituality: Spiritual Values of Lewis and Harris, Islands Book Trust, Kershaw, 2013.
- Parables of Northern Seed: Anthology from BBC's Thought for the Day, Wild Goose, Iona, 2014.
- Spiritual Activism: Leadership as Service (co-authored), Green Books / UIT Cambridge, 2015.
- Poacher's Pilgrimage: an Island Journey, Birlinn, Edinburgh, 2016.

Praise for Soil and Soul: "This is a world-changing book, one of the most important I have ever read, which will transform our perception of ourselves, our history and our surroundings ... the work of a great thinker and a great poet" - George Monbiot. "Elegant and Prophetic" – Sunday Times. "Gripping" – Observer; "Truly mental" – Thom Yorke, Radiohead.

Praise for Hell and High Water: "Very scientifically rigorous ... a kind of rage and optimism" – Radio 4's Open Book; "It's psychological and spiritual insights make such an important contribution to climate change" – Jonathon Porritt; "A profoundly important book" – Michael Russell MSP, Minister for Environment; "Inspiration" – Archbishop (Williams) of Canterbury.

Praise for Poacher's Pilgrimage: "Fascinating, provocative and, occasionally, very funny" - Times Literary Supplement; "This is a lovely book, book to savour, a book to give, remarkable in its deep knowledge and spiritual versatility" – Church Times.

Other Achievements and Activities - See current itinerary at www.alastairmcintosh.com/#itinerary

- Regular broadcasting, including BBC Radio Scotland & Radio 4 Thought or Prayer for the Day.
- Founding and community-elected trustee of the Isle of Eigg Trust (for land reform), a founding trustee and treasurer of the GalGael Trust (for cultural regeneration) in Govan, Glasgow.
- Fellowships: Centre for Human Ecology; Schumacher Society; University of Ulster (07-09); University of Glasgow (Research Fellowship nomination pending 2013).
- PhD External Examiner to University of Dundee and Murdoch University, West Australia.
- Special advisor on "Combating Islamophobia" to the (now ex-) President of Glasgow Mosque.
- Since 1997, have annually addressed c. 400 senior military officers from 60 countries at the Joint Services Command and Staff College, Britain's Defence Academy variously on the Intermediate, Advanced and in 2013, the Higher Command & Staff Course. Also military/diplomatic lecturing in Geneva (NATO PfP) and Ireland (Military College). My chapter, "A Nonviolent Challenge to Conflict," is published by MacMillan in the UK Defence Academy's ethics textbook.
- Consultant (Quaker) to the World Council of Churches' Decade for Overcoming Violence.
- A leader in the campaign that stopped the proposed Lafarge-Redland Isle of Harris superquarry, and 2003-13 serving (unpaid) on Sustainability Stakeholder Panel.
- Work on on identity/belonging in Scotland incl. co-author of politically key reports - People and Parliament (1999); Embracing Multicultural Scotland (2000) and The Dream Job Report (2005).
- Commissioner to Scotland's Poverty Truth Commission (2009-12, Church of Scotland).
- Consulting editor for Journal for the Study of Religion, Nature, and Culture, University of Florida.
- Member/signatory of Geneva-based agencies' Coalition for a Green Economy and regular teaching/consultancy/guest lecturing with WWF International, including One Planet Leaders.